III. ATTENTION AND APPEAL

Appropriate traffic aids will be erected to guide motorists and notices will be displayed by public transport operators to advise passengers of the temporary arrangements.

Vehicular access to and from hotels and car parks within the affected areas will not be allowed during the period of respective phases of road closures. Any vehicles found illegally parked within the precinct of the special traffic arrangements specified above may be towed away by the Police without prior notice.

Members of the public are advised to plan their journeys early, use railway services as far as possible and allow more travelling time to cater for unexpected delay. Public transport users are advised to pay attention to the arrangements of route diversion and changes of stop locations.

Members of the public heading for Hong Kong Station and Kowloon Station of the Airport Express Line are advised to plan their journey early to avoid any delay caused by road closures and traffic diversions.

Taxi and public light bus drivers who will go to Wan Chai North for refilling are advised to take note of the road closure arrangements implemented in the area.

Depending on the prevailing circumstances, other ad-hoc traffic and public transport measures, including further closures of roads, traffic diversion, alterations and suspension of public transport services, may be introduced by the Police on site at short notice. Members of the public are advised to watch out for the latest traffic news on radio and television. For the details of the special traffic and transport information, members of the public may call 1823 Call Centre, browse the website of TD at www.td.gov.hk or make use the “HKeMobility” mobile application of TD.
